8/7/72 Jim Lesar-While you were reading my commentary on the draft of the habeas corpus petition I skimmed the latest batch of clippings of Schoolfield. As his character and record become clearer from them, the need to have some kind of interest increases. He seems to be much worse than a virulent, violence-prone racist, an easily-available crook who as a judge could be bought easily and cheaply and often was, hundreds of criminal cases alone. (Also meaning interesting contacts of the past.) He was the subject of McClelland Committee hearings of 2 12/57 and of a report circa 3/24/58. (Bobby's time?) I think we should get and read. While I'd prefer not to, I guess I can be elected. We ought not overlook this because we are still looking for keys and he now appears, after long hiding, in too many roles all of which meant disaster. HW
